As a Citizen who understands the principles which copyright law was originally founded on I demand that our "fair use" rights be protected and that copyright law be return to it's original intent and scope. Any person who buys or otherwise legitimately owns media should have the right to circumvent any and all form of "DRM" to access that material and exercise their "fair use" rights with regard to the media.

Thanks for your time.