Summary:

Disc name: Stone Temple Pilots Revolution

When played in a PC, this Stone Temple Pilots CD single loaded its own player and launched a video for the song "Revolution." I was unable to play the CD on the PC without the video running. I frequently buy CDs and listen to them on my computer while I work; however, I prefer to use an unobtrusive CD player application that doesn't interfere with the other programs I have open at the time. This CD did not allow me to make that choice.
