Any number of Spanish Language DVD's

I would like an exemption for copy protected cd/dvd's because the Spanish version of Harry Potter, Jurassic Park, Men in Black, and Lord of the Rings, would not play in my region #1 coded DVD player.

On a recent trip to Mexico I planned to purchase a number of Spanish language DVD's. My purpose was to assist in the education of my son who is taking part in Spanish Immersion classes, and provide him with language appropriate entertainment. Unfortunately, all the Spanish language DVD's are encoded for a separate region, and will not play in my US DVD player. I settled for the few Spanish language VHS tapes that were available, and gave up trying to buy Spanish DVD's.
