Class of works: I am writing in support of Class #3 (Unskippable DVD Advertising): Audiovisual works released on DVD that contain access control measures that interfere with the ability to control private performance, including the ability to skip promotional materials.

Summary:

Disc name: The Kid

I wanted to see The Kid on DVD but had to wait about 20 minutes for it to get through the FBI Warning, then the duplication copyright screen, then the introductory junk, to finally see the film I bought. Great movie but 20 minutes is an excessive amount of time to wait to see it. I hate it when I cannot control my OWN stuff while watching it on a normal DVD player.
