Class of works: I am writing in support of Class #3 (Unskippable DVD Advertising): Audiovisual works released on DVD that contain access control measures that interfere with the ability to control private performance, including the ability to skip promotional materials.

Summary:

Disc name: Blue Crush

We were bombarded with ads and FBI warnings. We do not have the freedom to skip to the portion of movie we want to watch. I can't believe that we pay for the movie and we are forced to watch the ads. Don't these Hollywood folk make enough money? Do they have to show us these commercials which have no moral value? At least during the movie I can fast-forward thru the trashy parts for the kids sake. What will Hollywood think of next? Will Hollywood force us to watch every stinking minute of the movie? Thank God I still have the power button!
