

February 8, 2012

Hello,

I'm writing on behalf of myself and others who wish to use their portable devices unlocked, rooted or jailbroken. I fully support keeping these devices legal as I believe they help push the development of better applications and devices as manufacturers see what can be done with the right programming and imagination. Thank you for your time considering this matter.

Thanks,

Robert Andersen