

This proposed change in the copy write law to cover automobiles infringes on the freedom of choice and competition by the auto makers. If this proposal is passed then we are all held hostage by the auto makers and freedom of choice and competition will be choked out. This will lead to higher prices for auto repairs and cost the consumer a fortune.