

As an artist who has been working for well over 40 years, I have thousands of works. To pay $500 to register each one is prohibitive. With this kind of fee structure, there is no way for me to protect my authorship. Please make some allowance for those of us who are creative but non commercial.