

NOTICE OF DESIGNATION AS COLLECTIVE UNDER STATUTORY LICENSE

Introduction

As per 37 C.F.R. §201.37 (c), this Notice serves to identify Royalty Logic, Inc. ("RLI") as a collective designated to administer royalties under Sections 112 and 114 of the Copyright Act, as amended. The Copyright Act outlines statutory licensing provisions for certain digital transmissions and ephemeral recordings of sound recordings.

Contact information for RLI

Address: 405 Riverside Drive
Burbank, California 91506

Phone: (818) 955-8900

Fax: (818) 558-3481

Statement of Designation

Sections 112(e)(2) and 114 (e)(1) of the Copyright Act allow for the designation of "common agents on a nonexclusive basis to negotiate, agree to, pay, or receive payments" arising from the statutory licensing provisions. Following the report of the Copyright Arbitration Royalty Panel ("CARP"), the Librarian of Congress designated RLI as a common agent for collection and distribution of statutory royalties. Determination of Reasonable Rates and Terms for the Digital Performance of Sound Recordings and Ephemeral Recordings; Final Rule, 67 Fed. Reg. 45239 (July 8, 2002) (the "Webcaster Decision"); 37 C.F.R. §261.4(b). Further, sound recording copyright owner and performer affiliates of RLI have designated RLI for the collection and distribution of statutory royalties pursuant to the "exemption" contained in Section 114(g)(3).

Online Access

Information concerning the statutory licensing of sound recordings and a copy of this notice can be accessed from RLI's web site at www.royaltylogic.com.