To: Jule L. Sigall
Associate Register for Policy & International Affairs

Date:     03/17/2005
From:     Ellen Fletcher

Comment:
An abandoned email client, Claris Emailer, has been dormant for years. It's a wonderful application, yet could use some upgrading.

Since the application is not longer owned by a vendor, the source code should become open to public domain. Many people still use Emailer, including those who are technically knowledgeable enough to modify the program.