

Name: Dave Savageau

Class of works: I am writing in support of Class #1 (Copy-Protected CDs): Sound recordings released on compact disc ("CDs") that are protected by technological protection measures that malfunction so as to prevent access on certain playback devices.

Summary:

Disc name: Eminem - Eight Mile Soundtrack. Universal Studios, Shady/Interscope records. ID#069493511-2

I couldn't play this CD on my computer. I can't enjoy this CD the way I want to, which is against my fair use rights. There were no warnings/notices on the packaging or posted in the store (FYE). This was my first purchase from this artist and I was considering buying more from him. However, I will hold off on any other purchases from this artist and from this store. I believe my fair use rights trump the DMCA/RIAA/Artist copyrights. If these groups expect me to buy an already overpriced CD, I expect to be able to fairly use it in the devices I own. I guess I will spend my money another way if I can't enjoy the use of the music I wish to purchase.
