

Name: Amos Brooks

Class of works: I am writing in support of Class #3 (Unskippable DVD Advertising): Audiovisual works released on DVD that contain access control measures that interfere with the ability to control private performance, including the ability to skip promotional materials.

Summary:

Disc name: Blue Crush

I bought the movie Blue Crush on DVD. There was a scratch on the surface of the DVD. The scratch caused the DVD to skip and restart at the beginning of the ad. There was no way of skipping the ad and the DVD couldn't play through the ad. This rendered the DVD useless as the movie portion could not be accessed. I should not be forced to view the ads if I don't choose to. I paid for it and I should be able to choose what I do and don't see. To make the situation worse; if I cannot skip the advertisements and cannot view the movie, I wasted my money on the DVD.