To whom it may concern,

I am disgusted that you would even consider to make Jailbreaking illegal! It allows users to do amazing things with their iDevices, like install Tweaks like SBSettings, which allows us quick access to toggles like Airplane Mode, Bluetooth and Wifi. It also allows us to customise our devices to our liking.

It is loved by millions world wide, and by making it illegal you would make the current Governments and Oppositions of the world VERY unpopular. You would also receive consistent amounts of hate mail. Jailbreaking doesn't break any laws.

I'm pretty sure that you personally know someone with a Jailbroken iPhone that would be devastated if they lost the right to Jailbreak it. And by making it illegal you wouldn't be stopping it, instead you would just be angering millions of people worldwide.

Please find it in your heart to realise that at the end of the day, by making Jailbreaking illegal, you guys are in the wrong, and not the Jailbreakers.

Sincerely,

Macslmus.
