

Dear Copyright Office,

I am writing because I am concerned about the proposal to increase copyright registration fees.

Making the registration process more expensive does not fulfill the mission of the Copyright Office and the Library of Congress: “To promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited times to authors and inventors the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries” (U.S. Constitution, Article 1, Section 8)

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Amy ToensingP
