

There's no way I can afford to register the copyright on my images if it goes up any more than it already has. I get paid on the order of $20-$400 for a shoot and it would be crazy for me to pay half of my earnings just to register the copyright. Copyright is important and valuable to me in the long run, but I have to eat right now. You are making it impossible for me to defend my rights.