

I feel the proposed increase in the copyright fee is far too much. The filing fee for internet should not go up at all. The cost of those filing is substantially less that those filed by mail.

I think the increase is far too high considering the reduced cost of copy rights filed electronically .