Dear Sir or Madam,

As a photographer who runs a small business, I am writing to oppose the proposed increases in copyright fees. I understand the need for the Copyright Office to increase revenue but I feel that due to the tough economic issues faced by most small businesses, that this is the wrong time to do so. In addition, I feel that the proposed increase is too much. For instance, raising the fee for a single submission by $10 seems a bit much. I could understand if the proposed increase was a dollar or two but ten dollars is exorbitant.

Sincerely,

Robert Byron
