

I agree with mandating certain exceptions and other practices regarding the cross-border import, export and qualified distribution of copyrighted works for the blind, visually impaired, and other reading disabled persons, without permission of the rights holders. This is a matter of freedom of access for individuals with vision-impairments and we must not intercede with their right to gather and digest printed information.