LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

Copyright Office

37 CFR Parts 202, 211, and 212

[Docket No. RM 2004–5]

Reconsideration Procedure

AGENCY: Copyright Office, Library of Congress.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Copyright Office is publishing a final rule concerning reconsideration procedures. With a few modifications, this regulation continues procedures adopted by the U.S. Copyright Office in 1995 that permit copyright applicants to request reconsideration of its decisions to refuse registration. This regulation amends those procedures and incorporates them into Copyright Office regulations.

Copyright applicants will continue to have two opportunities to seek reconsideration of a Copyright Office decision to refuse registration. A significant modification is that the reconsideration procedures are also made applicable to the Office’s refusals to register mask works and vessel hull designs.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 27, 2005.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:
Marilyn J. Kreitsinger, Associate General Counsel, or Renee Coe, Senior Attorney at this address: Copyright GC/I&R, P.O. Box 70400, Washington, DC 20024–0400. Telephone: (202) 707–8380. Telefax: (202) 707–8366.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On July 13, 2004, the Copyright Office published a notice of proposed rulemaking seeking comment on its proposed revision of parts 202, 211 and 212 of subchapter A of Chapter II, 37 CFR. The purpose of this notice is to announce the final rule.

This regulation establishes procedures for applicants to request that the Copyright Office reconsider refusals to register copyright claims and claims in mask works or vessel hull designs. There are two opportunities for reconsideration of a refusal to register. At the first level of reconsideration, the Examining Division of the Copyright Office reviews its initial decision to refuse registration. At the second level, the Review Board conducts the review of a refusal to register.

For administrative reasons, the Copyright Office is making one change in the membership of the Review Board which considers the second request for reconsideration. The Review Board is composed of three members; the first two members are the Register of Copyrights and the General Counsel or their respective designees. The third member will be designated by the Register. This rule also establishes procedures for mailing or hand delivering requests for reconsideration and related documents.

In response to the publication of the proposed rule, the Copyright Office did not receive any comments. Consequently, the Copyright Office is adopting the previously proposed text, as a final rule, with the one administrative change noted above and without substantive change, as follows:

List of Subjects

37 CFR Part 202

Claims, Copyright.

37 CFR Part 211

Freedom of Information.

37 CFR Part 212

Vessels.

Proposed Regulations

In consideration of the foregoing, the Copyright Office amends parts 202, 211 and 212 of 37 CFR, Chapter II in the manner set forth below:
Applicant a written notification stating the reasons for refusal within four months of the date on which the first request for reconsideration is received by the Examining Division. When the ending date for the four-month time period falls on a weekend or a Federal holiday, the ending day of the four-month period shall be extended to the next Federal work day. Failure by the Examining Division to send the written notification within the four-month period shall not result in registration of the applicant.

§ 211.7 Reconsideration procedure for refusals to register.

The requirements prescribed in § 202.5 of this chapter for reconsideration of refusals to register copyright claims are applicable to requests to reconsider refusals to register vessel hull designs under 17 U.S.C. chapter 13, unless otherwise required by this part.

Marybeth Peters,
Register of Copyrights.

Approved by:
James H. Billington,
Librarian of Congress.
