

/**Instructions For DMCA Registration Form: this form is not posted on the website; it should be filed with the U.S. Copyright Office. The Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) provides a limited "safe harbor" for "service providers" for copyright infringement occasioned independently by their subscribers. This means that if a website visitor uploads infringing material to your website (text, videos, etc. to your blog, forum, or other location on your website), then you will be shielded from copyright infringement.

To take advantage of the safe harbor, you will need to include a DMCA notice in your Terms of Use. In addition, you must complete and file a DMCA agent (that is what this form does). The safe harbor will not apply if you (1) place the material on-line yourself, (2) select or alter its content, (3) determine its recipients, (4) benefit financially from the infringement, (5) endorse or advertise the material, or (6) know that the material is infringing. This form is for your original filing (meaning that you have not filed before).

If you have filed before, and want to amend your filing, this is the form to use:
<http://copyright.gov/onlinesp/agenta.pdf>

The filing should be accompanied by a filing fee payable to the Register of Copyrights. Please note that the fee for filing includes a designation of an agent includes the ability to list only one name of the service provider, i.e., the service provider's legal name. If additional, alternative names are filed with the Office, each group of 10 alternative names (or fewer) will require the payment of an additional fee, currently $35, in addition to the $105 basic filing fee. For example, if a service provider seeks to list five alternative names by which the service provider is doing business (e.g., five website domains), the fee for such filing would be $140 ($105 for the basic designation plus $35 for the five alternative names).

The check should be made payable to: Register of Copyrights.

If mailed, the designation should be addressed to: U.S. Copyright Office, Designated Agents, P.O. Box 71537, Washington, DC 20024-1537.

A service provider may also file a designation in person by delivering it to the Public Information Office of the Copyright Office, James Madison Memorial Building, Library of Congress, 101 Independence Avenue, SE, Washington, DC, Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time, except federal holidays.
