Comment:
Having been a military dependant who lived in he US and overseas it is very hard to track down the owners of copyright to many photos of me and my family over the years.

As a scrapbooker and genealogist having copies of relatives to share and create with are important to me.