

liu-christine-20050301103003

To: Julie L. Sigall
Associate Register for Policy & International Affairs

Date: 03/01/2005

From: christine liu

Comment:

as a graphic artist + musician, i would like to create original works based on found samples i find online or in other media like old books, records, or printed materials. however, part of the hesitation on embarking on such projects is fear of prosecution by copyright lawyers. please please please think of the creatives who would like to use these orphan works!