To: Jule L. Sigall
Associate Register for Policy & International Affairs

Date: 03/22/2005
From: Brooke Young

Comment:
The best thing to do, is to make them available to the public. It is so important for libraries, professors, and schools have as much access to works of all kinds as is possible. I think if a clear owner cannot be found it should be owned by the public for the public good.