

Concerning orphan works...

Its my belief that such works as cannot be attributed to anyone should be allowed to both be in and remain in the public domain to be used by everyone provided than an honest effort has been previously made by the prospective user to ascertain proper ownership and give proper attribution in the event that the owner/owners are found.

Thank you.